UNIT 1 RECORDING W1.2

When I was eighteen, I went on vacation with a group of buddies to Cancun. We had a great time. Every day, we went sunbathing on the beach, and, at night, we went out dancing. On the last night, I met a Mexican girl called Maria, and we got along really well. We went to a 24-hour café and talked all night. Soon it was morning, and we both had to go.

We promised to write to each other when we got home, and, at first, we did. But, after a few months, we decided that it was too difficult because we lived in different countries, so we stopped. I started college and forgot about her.

Ten years later, I started a new job in Portland. On the first day, I walked into the office, and who do you think I saw? It was Maria! I recognized her immediately. She still looked the same. Of course, we were both really shocked to see each other. She explained that she now lived alone in Portland because of her job with the company. Well, of course, we got along really well again, and we started hanging out with each other. I showed her around Portland, and we went to museums, concerts and restaurants. It wasn't long until we fell in love! It felt right, so I proposed to her, and she accepted! We got married soon after and had our son, Jamie. We're very happy together!

UNIT 2 RECORDING W2.3

- 1 I work as a safari guide. I take tourists to see the animals. Everyone thinks my job is dangerous, but I don't think so. Well, I didn't think so until last month. So, what happened? Well, I had a bus full of tourists. There were fifteen of them. It was a beautiful, clear evening, and, at about seven o'clock, we saw some elephants. Everyone wanted to take photos, so I told them they could get off the bus for a few minutes. So there we were, these tourists taking photos of the elephants. Then suddenly, the male elephant turned. It looked at us. And I could see that it was angry. So I told everyone to stand still. "Don't move!" Well, the elephant continued looking at us, and I thought that it was going to charge, you know, to run at us. I told the tourists to walk very slowly back to the bus. Then the elephant charged at us. I jumped into the bus and started driving as fast as possible. The elephant came very close, and the tourists were all shouting and screaming. But it was OK in the end. We escaped.

- 2 I was on a safari holiday. It was a really beautiful place, very quiet. One evening, at about six o'clock, we went for a drive in the tour bus. There were twenty of us tourists. Well, we soon saw some elephants. They were drinking at a pool. So we got out of the bus to take photos. Anyway, suddenly, this large male elephant started looking very angry. Then it walked towards us. The guide told us to run back to the bus as fast as possible. So we did. This was a really bad idea because the elephant followed us. Then the guide got into the bus and drove away very fast. We were really quiet and calm because we didn't want to frighten the elephant. But it wasn't a nice experience, and we were happy to get back to the hotel that night.

D = David T = Terry

- D: So, what do you think, Terry? I put it on this wall because of the light.
- T: Um. It's ... it's ... well, I want to say I like it. But I don't.
- D: You don't like it?
- T: No, David, I don't. It's terrible.
- D: What?
- T: It's just black. All over. It's black on black. It looks like a painting of a black bird flying over a black building on a black night.
- D: It's modern art, Terry.
- T: I know, I know. But it doesn't say anything.
- D: What do you mean, it doesn't say anything? It's art. It doesn't talk.
- T: You know what I mean. It has no message. I don't understand it.
- D: You don't have to understand it, Terry. It's art. It just exists. It's not there to be understood.
- T: So why is it all black? Why not white? Or white and black? Or red, white and black?
- D: Why don't you ask the artist?
- T: How much did it cost?
- D: I'm not telling you.
- T: How much did it cost?
- D: Why?
- T: I want to know.
- D: It was expensive.
- T: What does that mean? What's expensive? Fifty dollars? Fifty thousand dollars?
- D: Nearer fifty thousand.
- T: Nearer fifty thousand dollars than fifty?
- D: Yes. Forty-five thousand. Forty-five thousand dollars.
- T: I can't believe it! You bought a black painting ... you spent forty-five thousand dollars ...
- D: I liked it. I like it. No, I love it.
- T: It's black, David. Black on black. I could paint it for you in five minutes.
- D: But you didn't.
- T: You didn't ask me to.
- D: I didn't want you to.
- T: Has Mary seen it?
- D: Not yet. She's away. She'll be back on Friday.
- T: Does she know you bought it?
- D: No. It's a surprise.
- T: Oh, yes, it will be. A big surprise! Does Mary even like modern art?
- D: Yes. She'll like this.
- T: How do you know?
- D: I know.
- T: How?
- D: Because I know what Mary likes and what Mary doesn't like. And she'll like this.

T: I hope so. Because if she doesn't, you're dead.

UNIT 4 RECORDING W4.2

I = Interviewer P = Professor

- I: Professor Morris, we're looking at learning and the different ways in which people like to learn, and one of the things we can look at is the type of learner. Is that right?
- P: Yes, research has shown that there may be many different types of learner. One way we can look at this is to divide people into two groups: holists and serialists. Now, most people will probably use both approaches, but often we find people are quite strongly one or the other.
- I: Holists and serialists. So, what's the difference between the two?
- P: Well, students who are serialists like to study taking one step at a time. They look at a subject or topic and work through the different parts of the topic in order.
- I: And holistic learners? How are they different?
- P: The holists are very different. They like to have a general understanding of the whole topic. And they find it easier to study and learn if they have an idea of the "big picture." They don't worry so much about the detail.
- I: Oh. That's me. I think I'm more of a holist.
- P: Are you? Well, you see ...

UNIT 4 RECORDING W4.3

I = Interviewer P = Professor

- I: So, tell me a little bit more about the serialist. You said that they like to learn things in sequence, in order.
- P: That's right. So, they start at the beginning, and, when they feel they've fully understood one part, then they are ready to move on to the next part.

But, it's very important to them that they understand the detail.

- I: OK. These are the kind of people who always read the instructions before they try a new piece of equipment or machinery.
- P: That's right.
- I: And what about the holistic learners?
- P: OK. Well, a holist never starts learning about a topic at the beginning. They jump around and get lots of information. So, they might pick up a book about the topic and choose a chapter in the middle and start reading there.
- I: That's like me. I choose the bit I'm most interested in.
- P: Exactly. But a serialist learner will start at the beginning and read each chapter in order.
- I: That's very interesting. What about writing? Is there a difference there, too?
- P: Yes, absolutely. A serialist will make a careful plan of everything they have to write and then begin to research each area. But a holist will read about a lot of different things and have lots of bits of paper with notes. Then they will try to put the different pieces together when they begin writing.
- I: That's very true. There is paper everywhere. I think my professors at college would like me to be more serialist.
- P: Yes, that's probably true ...

UNIT 5 RECORDING W5.2

A twenty-one-year-old German tourist called Tobi Gutt wanted to visit his girlfriend in Sydney, Australia. Unfortunately, he typed the wrong destination on a travel website. He landed near Sidney, Montana, in the United States. This is his story.

Tobi left Germany for a four-week vacation. He was wearing a T-shirt and shorts, perfect clothes for the Australian summer. But the plane didn't land in Australia. It landed in freezing-cold Montana in the United States.

He had to take a connecting flight, but when he looked at the plane to Sidney, he became confused. Strangely, it was very small. And then he realized his mistake. Sidney, Montana, was an oil town of about 5,000 people. It was also in the United States, not Australia.

Tobi then spent three days waiting in the airport. He had only a thin jacket in the middle of winter, and no money. A few friendly people helped him with food and water until, eventually, his parents and friends from Germany sent him some money. He bought a ticket to Australia, where, finally, he saw his girlfriend.

H = Host	W1 = Woman 1
W2 = Woman 2	W3 = Woman 3
M = Man

Part 1

H: We're in Boise, and this is table tennis for the over-fifties. The people who play here play three times a week, so you don't need to tell them about how exercise makes you feel better.

W1: It gives you a great feeling. You feel fabulous. Any type of exercise is good for you, especially when you're my age. It just makes you feel good.

H: Scientists have now worked out that you can live longer if you have a healthy lifestyle. They did some research. They followed 20,000 people for more than ten years, and they looked at the different lifestyles they had. The results are interesting. They showed that people who don't smoke, who do regular exercise and who eat five servings of fresh fruit and vegetables every day actually live longer. These people actually live about fourteen years longer than the people who didn't have such healthy lifestyles. They lived longer, and they didn't have so many health problems. Doctors say that even making a small change to your lifestyle can make a big difference to your health. Also, don't worry if you have bad habits now. It's never too late to start. So, does everyone agree that it's a good idea to give up smoking, eat healthily and do exercise in order to live longer? We asked people on the street to tell us what they think.

Part 2

W2: I don't know. I don't think it's that important. I mean, I don't eat five servings of fruit and vegetables every day. I don't like them, so I'm not going to do that.

W3: If I go out with my friends in the evening, then I'm going to smoke. Having a cigarette is social. It's part of the fun.

M: Absolutely. I think it's a great idea. Do exercise, eat well, stop smoking. And live a long and happy life. Everyone should do it.

H: The message is clear: scientists are telling us that, if we want to live a long and healthy life, we need to look at how we live. So, I'm going to play a game of table tennis.

UNIT 7 RECORDING W7.3

I = Interviewer S = Susan

I: So, Susan, why do people change their names?

S: There are many reasons. Some of them are quite simple. For example, when a woman gets divorced, she might want to go back to her original name.

I: Right.

S: And, of course, other people just don't like their names. But then there are more interesting reasons.

I: Can you give us some examples?

S: Well, the boxer Muhammad Ali was originally called Cassius Clay. When he changed his religion, he also changed his name to Muhammad Ali.

I: So, religious reasons.

S: Yes. And for famous people—especially actors and singers—they need a name that's easy to say and easy to remember. So, for example, the singer Farookh Balsara ...

I: Who's that?

S: Farookh Balsara was the real name of Freddie Mercury.

I: From Queen.

S: That's right. The lead singer of Queen. And, of course, Freddie Mercury is easier to remember than Farookh Balsara. Or Georgios Kyriacos Panayiotou.

I: Who?

S: Georgios Kyriacos Panayiotou is the real name of the singer George Michael.

I: Ah.

S: It's the same with lots of singers, actually. Sting's real name is Gordon Sumner. The singer from U2, Bono—his real name is Robert Hewson, and so on and so on. Now another reason people want to change their names, especially if they are immigrants from another country, is to identify with the new country. So maybe you're from Germany and your real name is Wilhelm. When you go to the United States, you might change it to William. Or your name is Andreas and you change it to Andrew.

I: This happens a lot in the United States and England.

S: Exactly. People want to mix with others. And having a name that's easy to recognize and to pronounce helps a lot. Another reason people change their names is to separate themselves from their family or from famous parents. Angelina Jolie's father is the actor John Voight. She was originally called Angelina Jolie Voight.

- I: But she dropped the name Voight.
 S: That's right. And another reason for people changing their names is that there was a mistake. Oprah Winfrey's mother named her Orpah Winfrey. O-r-p-a-h. But there was a mistake on her birth certificate and everyone called her Oprah.

UNIT 8 MONEY RECORDING W8.1

Maggie and Joe Smith lived in the same house for fifty years. When Maggie was eighty-six years old, Joe died. The house was very big, so Maggie decided to move. She sold the house to a businessman called David Jones. A few weeks later, Maggie was at the hairdresser when she heard someone say that the new owner,

David Jones, had found some money in her old house. She contacted Mr. Jones. He told her there was $10,000 hidden in the wall. Then he said they could share the money: $5,000 for him and $5,000 for her. She agreed. A few days later, Mr. Jones visited Maggie Smith. He had a contract. The contract said that Maggie Smith should agree to accept $5,000 for any money found in or around the house. Mrs. Smith thought this was very strange. She didn't sign it. In fact, she took Mr. Jones to court. In court, Mr. Jones told the truth: there wasn't $10,000. There was $150,000 in the walls, mainly in fifty-dollar or a hundred-dollar bills. Joe Smith, Maggie's husband, was putting money in the wall for fifty years, and he never told his wife. So what happened in the end? The judge decided that Maggie Smith should get all of the money. David Jones got nothing.

- hot, hotter, hotter than—In July it is hotter in France than in Poland.

UNIT 9 RECORDING W9.3

- I'm lucky living by the ocean. Every morning, I see fishermen coming in after work. There's always something to do because the ocean is always different. Every day, you see something different. When I was younger, we used to have parties and sleep on the beach. We cooked fish and listened to Bob Marley, and that was fun. These days, I still go for walks every day with my dog. We've seen dolphins here. And we saw a dead whale on the beach once. It was enormous. It was on the beach for weeks.
- As a child, I played in a tree house in the yard. We were always outside. We invented games, and we knew the names of animals and insects. We played in our yard or in our friends' yards. It was very safe in those days. You could be outside all day. When I was young, we didn't have computers or even the television. And there wasn't as much crime, so we really grew up in the yard.
- I go hiking and camping in the mountains. You can do that here in the summer. In the winter, it's too cold. I think Americans like me enjoy the wild. We like big spaces, big skies. I'm just a few miles from a city, but there are all kinds of plants and animals out here. You can see deer and bears. It's pretty amazing.
- I work with animals all the time. We have chickens, cows and pigs on the farm. There are a lot of farms around here, so it's completely normal to see animals around. I really like feeding the pigs 'cause they're quite funny to watch. One thing I don't like is getting up early. We do it every day. We get up at five in the morning, and I'm always half asleep.

A: Do you like eating out in restaurants?
B: I enjoy it sometimes, but I prefer to cook at home.
- 5
A: Is it much more expensive to live there now? What are the prices like?
B: It's not too bad. But it's more expensive than it was.
- 6
A: Does your brother like it in Scotland?

UNIT 10 RECORDING W10.3

I = Interviewer S = Sophie L = Luis
P = Pamela

- 1
S: OK. My name is Sophie Dunston, and I'm sixteen years old. Well, one thing I don't like is people using their cell phones or laptops or other technology at the wrong time.
I: What do you mean by "the wrong time"?

- S: For example, during classes or any time when someone's trying to talk to them.
I: Isn't this normal now?
S: I don't think so. Some of my friends don't even hear their parents because they spend their whole life wearing headphones. I think it's really rude.
I: And how would you stop this?
S: Well, in my school, they banned personal technology during classes, and I think it was a really good idea. People can concentrate much better now.

I: Luis, can you just introduce yourself briefly?
L: Yeah, I'm thirty-five years old, and I'm a waiter. Should I answer the questions?
I: Yes, go ahead.
L: OK. Well, for me the worst thing is litter.
I: On the street?
L: Litter on the street. People just throw away bits of paper or drop food. But it's also on the subway. I'm a New Yorker. I go to work every day by subway, and people just leave their newspapers lying around. And all this paper is a real mess.
I: How can we stop it?
L: I don't think you can stop it. The government has tried to introduce fines, but it hasn't worked.
I: What punishment would you suggest for people who drop litter?
L: I'd make them clean the streets.

I: If you just give your name and age.
P: All right. My name is Pamela, and I'm seventy years old. But I think I'm a young seventy. Unlike most of my older friends, I love technology, and I use email every day. But the one thing I hate about it is spam. It is so annoying. I think the people who are responsible should be forced to sit down and read millions of spam messages for six months.
I: That would teach them!
P: Of course it would.

UNIT 11 TECHNOLOGY RECORDING W11.1

A: Have you finished the book yet?
B: Yes, I've already started the next one.
- 2
A: Have you cooked dinner yet?
B: No, I just walked in the door.
- 3
A: Have you asked your wife yet?
B: No, I'm going to speak to her later.
- 4
A: Have you decided where we're going yet?
B: Yes, we've just reserved a table at Mario's.
- 5
A: Do you want to come and play soccer?
B: No, I've already played twice this week.
- 6
A: Have you seen Miranda?
B: Yes, she's just left.

UNIT 11 RECORDING W11.2

- 1 I get bored very easily. I prefer being busy, so I'm always doing things. Some people just like to sit down and do nothing. But I can't do that. I need to be active.
- 2 I feel lonely sometimes if my partner goes away for work and I'm on my own at home. But, then I call a friend or my sister. Or I speak to someone I haven't spoken to for a long time. Then I don't feel lonely anymore.
- 3 I get really confused when I have to do anything with numbers, like check bills or bank rates and things like that. I hate that kind of thing. I do find numbers confusing.
- 4 I am always amazed by nature—the beauty of nature. You can just stand in a beautiful place and look at it, and it's just amazing.
- 5 I get nervous when I have to organize a social event—like if I'm having a party or lots of people over for dinner. I get nervous about what I'm going to cook and if I'll have time to do everything.
- 6 I worry about all kinds of things. Often I feel worried about the world when I see the news and all the problems. There are so many problems in the world, and, a lot of the time, I try not to think about them. And then, suddenly, I'll start to worry.

UNIT 11 RECORDING W11.3

R = Robert M = Miriam

- R: I think they've already changed the way we live. I mean, a lot of people, like me, spend a lot of their free time playing online games. And this has made me a more sociable person. It's difficult to play modern computer games alone. When you start the game, you also join a network of other people playing online, and you can join a team to play with other people around the world. I work as a truck driver, so I spend a lot of time alone on the road. When I used to play computer games, when I was younger, I sat in my bedroom, closed off from the world. Now when I play, I'm constantly talking to other players in real time. Because of this, I spend most of my free time talking to other people with the same interests. I used to be quite shy, but these days I find it easier to talk to people I don't know. So, yes, I think computer games are changing the way we live, and it's a good thing.

M: Well, they're not changing the way I live very much. I mean, they're just games, like any other game. I quite like computer games—some of them. There are lots of games I don't like, like the violent games, but, for me, it's just the same as the other things I do. I mean, sometimes I read a book or watch television to relax. Sometimes I go out for a walk, and sometimes I play a computer game. It's not changing my life. I don't spend all my time on the computer. I use a computer for work, so I don't want to be on the computer all the time at home, too. And I think a lot of people are like me. In our free time, we prefer to do other things.

UNIT 11 RECORDING W11.4

M = Manager W = Worker

M: The project needs to be finished this week.

W: I'm afraid that's not possible.

M: Why not? Everything's possible.

W: I'm sorry, but I don't think it is. We're working hard, but we need another two weeks to finish the job.

M: Two weeks? Can you try to finish by the end of next week?

W: I'm really not sure about that. There's still a lot of work to do.

M: That's true. But you can get some more staff so we can finish sooner. I'm sorry, but I don't see what the problem is.

W: I'm afraid I totally disagree. The problem is that we don't have more staff. We can't find people to start work tomorrow, so ...

UNIT 11 RECORDING W11.5

W = Worker M = Manager

W: I'm afraid that's not possible.

W: I'm sorry, but I don't think it is.

W: I'm really not sure about that.

M: I'm sorry, but I don't see what the problem is.

W: I'm afraid I totally disagree.

UNIT 12 FAME RECORDING W12.1

Some lines in movies are so famous that people recognize them all over the world. One of these is the line "E.T. phone home," which Drew Barrymore said in her role as Gertie in E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial, in 1982. This line helped start her acting career when she was only six years old. It made her one of the biggest child stars of the time.

Another line that helped an actor's career was "I'll be back." In a scene in The Terminator in 1984, Arnold Schwarzenegger tries to get into a police station, but they don't let him in. So he promises to return. And he does, by driving a car through the doors! Schwarzenegger used the same line again in many of his movies. For many people, it's the first thing they think of when they hear his name.

When people think of Robert de Niro, they also remember the famous line "You talking to me?" from the 1976 movie Taxi Driver. This line wasn't actually in the script. Robert de Niro just said it while they were filming, and it became the line people remembered most in the film.

Sometimes words are connected to the role, not the actor who says them. All James Bond actors so far have introduced themselves with the line "My name's Bond. James Bond," after Sean Connery first said it in Dr. No in 1962.

"Frankly my dear, I don't give a damn." Now this was perhaps the most famous line ever said on screen. Clark Gable said it at the end of Gone with the Wind, in 1939. It was used to show that his character didn't care what happened to Scarlett O'Hara, even though he was in love with her. People thought the word damn was a very bad word in the U.S.A. at the time. But this just made the line more powerful.

A: Good afternoon. How can I help you?

B: Hello. I'd like to go on a tour of the city.

A: OK. Are you thinking about a bus tour or private tour or boat tour?

B: A bus tour. Would you be able to recommend something?

A: Yes, we have regular tours throughout the day. The bus leaves every hour from outside the hotel.

B: Oh, perfect.

A: Here's some more information.

B: Thank you.

A: Would you like me to reserve you a seat? You don't have to. You can just wait outside the hotel if you like.

B: I'll just wait outside. Thanks very much.

A: You're welcome. Enjoy the tour.

A: Excuse me. Would it be possible to change seats?

B: Um ... let's have a look.
